Sleepy Hollow High School's Multimedia Productions Team Wins Best News Magazine Video at the ninth annual Reel Teens Festival.

The team won a trophy and a check for $100 and had excerpts of their video shown each night of the festivals.

"The ninth annual Reel Teens Festival celebrates the creative intelligence of young people by screening films and videos made by teenagers. This past year 450 entries were received, 40 from foreign countries." Barry Kerr Festival Director.

The Festival was held Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, Columbus Day weekend October 9 -11, 2009 at the Hunter Movie Theater on Route 23A in the village of Hunter, New York. A small group representing the team made the trip to enjoy the festival and accept the award.
